To Whom it may concern:

Please put an end to the persecution of Microsoft--this lawsuit is nothing more than envy on the part of their competitors who wish to substitute political and legal maneuvering for free market competition-which is all Microsoft has ever done, despite dishonest publicity to the contrary.

The fact remains that Microsoft does not have the power to force anyone to buy it's products--it's just not possible. Only the government can physically coerce.

Therefore, please end this lawsuit now...cease punishing Microsoft...it is immoral and unjust.

Sincerely,

Wayne Swygert
